Pension Industry Updates

Notice to all employees on their right to Life Insurance Policy and Pension Contributions

The National Pension Commission (PenCom) published a notification in the national dailies on 12 February 2014 for all employees in both the public and private sectors covered by the Pension Reform Act 2004 (PRA 2004) to remind them of their right to have Life Insurance policies taken on their behalf by their employers for an insured amount of not less than three (3) times their annual total emolument.

Employees are also required to ensure that all pension contributions deducted from their salaries and/or contributed by their employers are remitted to the Pension Fund Custodian (PFC) by the employer not later than seven (7) working days from the date of payment of their salaries.

The Stanbic IBTC RSA Fund

The Stanbic IBTC RSA Fund ("The Fund") which opened on 02 May 2006 at N1.0000 closed at N 2.3964 as at 31 March 2014. In line with investment guidelines issued by the National Pension Commission, the Fund's portfolio allocation was as follows on 31 March 2014: Government Securities (78.88%), Money Market (4.24%), Quoted Equities (15.07%), and Other Fixed Income (1.81%).

Can I reset my password online?

Your password can be reset by following the steps outlined below:

1. From the Login page, click on the "Forgotten your password?" link.
2. This should bring you to a screen where you will be required to enter your complete RSA number (starting with "PEN" with no spaces).
3. Once you have done this, an alert will be sent to your registered e-mail address advising you of your username and new passcode.
4. You will then need to use your RSA number, username and new passcode to login for the first time, after which we strongly advise you to change it to any combination of your choice.

Important Information

Stanbic IBTC Pension Managers Limited will NOT ask for gratification (e.g. money, recharge card, dash, etc) before or after processing your benefits application. Kindly disregard ANY request for gratification neither should you offer money ("dash") to any organization, agent or staff for the processing of your retirement benefit.
