

What you need to know about Micro Pensions (MP)

The Micro Pension Plan (MPP) was officially flagged off by the President on Thursday, 28 March 2019. The official commencement date was Monday, 01 April 2019.

As a Nigerian citizen, you either qualify to be in the Micro Pension Plan or the Mandatory Contributory Pension.

The Micro Pension Plan is a voluntary financial scheme for:

- a. Self-employed individuals;
- b. Persons working for organisations that are unstructured (registered or unregistered);
- c. Persons with irregular income and;
- d. Persons with limited or no access to financial services

UNIQUE BENEFITS OF MICRO PENSION PLAN /

1 Your money is safe.

2 You develop the habit of saving.

3 You earn returns on your savings.

4 Flexible withdrawal plan

5 Excellent Customer Service

6 Access to other incentives which includes Reward & Loyalty programs subject to terms & conditions

7 You can “Retire Well”

Stanbic IBTC Pension Managers

A member of
Standard Bank Group

HOW CAN I REGISTER FOR THE MICRO PENSION PLAN?

Complete the RSA registration form via physical or electronic platform

Supply your Bank Verification Number (BVN) and National Identification Number

Personal Identification Number (PIN) will be generated for contributors upon registration

Means of Identification include any of the following:

- National Identification Number
- Permanent Voters Card
- International Passport

- Evidence of membership of a registered association, union or cooperative society
- Certificate of business registration
- Certificate of Incorporation
- Letter of employment
- Bank Verification Number

Stanbic IBTC Pension Managers

A member of
Standard Bank Group